I admit, the other day, I attempted to shed English blood as humble revenge for the inhuman hanging and deportation of patriot Indian youth. In this attempt I have consulted none but my own conscience; I have conspired with none, but own duty.
I believe that, a nation held down in bondage by foreign bayonts is in a perpetual state of war. Since open battle is rendered impossible to a disarmed race, I attacked by surprise; since guands were denied to me, I drew forth my pistol and fired.
